Kiwanis Club of Tucson
1934 - 1980

DESCRIPTION

Collection consists of fifty years of weekly newsletters mailed to members before Kiwanis club meetings and distributed at meetings. The substance of these newsletters is largely discussion of past and upcoming club events as well as club announcements and organization details. Roughly half of the newsletters are bound by year while the rest are unbound and arranged as they were circulated.

6 boxes, 2.5 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers founded in 1915 and dedicated to improving communities and the lives of children through its service. The Tucson area is home to eight such Kiwanis clubs, but as the name of the club in the newsletters is simply the "Kiwanis Club of Tucson" and the records end at 1980, it is unclear to which one of the clubs the newsletters belonged. Nevertheless, the Kiwanis Club of Tucson was involved in many community service and outreach programs throughout its existence including fundraising for numerous other organizations and for the club's annual scholarship, serving meals in low-income communities, and volunteering with the Salvation Army.
