Leonard, Ida Reid, 1875-1947

Preliminary survey of the more important archives of the Territory and State of Arizona, 1936

DESCRIPTION

Typed survey of the records in the official public archives of the State of Arizona, produced under the auspices of the American Historical Association, Public Archives Commission. According to correspondence in the collection, there were no records located prior to statehood possibly due to a flooded basement in 1920.

1 box, .25 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Ida Reid Leonard moved to Tucson in 1901, working in the Tucson public schools while attending the University of Arizona. She graduated from the University of Arizona and became an Associate Professor of History and the first Dean of Women for the university.
