DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists of papers associated with the formation and early objectives of the Arizona Department of Economic Security. Highlight of the collection is a series of 22 folders outlining the actions and activities conducted in 1971-1973 through the planning and passage of legislation to create this Arizona department. Additional folders outline the department's first 5-year plan in including objectives, goals, and activities formulated in 1975. Two folders of brochures and newsletters compliment the collection and provide the researcher with a better understanding of the department's activities.
