Old Tucson Development Corporation
Papers, 1967-1977

DESCRIPTION

Small collection of miscellaneous business papers related to the Old Tucson Development Corporation. Includes notices of annual meetings of stockholders, prospectus for stock offering, minutes of stockholders meetings, annual reports and the quarterly newsletters to stockholders.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Columbia pictures built Old Tucson Studios outside of Tucson in 1939 for the movie "Arizona." It was used only periodically for the next twenty years. In 1959, Robert Shelton formed the Old Tucson Development Company and restored Old Tucson. It was used to produce films and television and also was used as a theme park. A major tourist attraction in Tucson, it was destroyed by fire in 1995 but it was quickly rebuilt and reopened in 1997.
