

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY BOARD MEMBER

Dennielle (Dolly) Patterson is a 5th generation Arizonan and life-time resident of Apache County. She holds a BS in Technical Management and a Masters of Network & Communications Management (both from DeVry University), however her greatest passion is preserving and sharing history, particularly Arizona history. She has been very involved in Genealogical and Historical Projects since the 1990s including a project with the National Genealogical Society to index all of the Civil War Veteran's records, volunteer webmaster of the Apache County portion of Arizona GenWeb, volunteer webmaster of the Apache County Historical Society Museum website and blog, digitization of photographs and other collections of Apache County History, and more.

She is the Network Administrator for the Apache County Library District and also the Project Manager of the Apache County Digital History Alliance, an organization created by the Library District to equip the District with a forum for partnerships in historical preservation. She has created an online database of collections created in partnership with other entities and citizens of Apache County to make items of historical significance to Apache County available online around the world.

She has been on the Board of the Apache County Historical Society since 2013 and is currently serving as Board Secretary. She was appointed to the Arizona Historical Society Board of Directors in 2015 and is currently serving as Treasurer for the State Board.
