

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY BOARD MEMBER

Tom Rose was born in Florence, AZ and raised in Casa Grande and Stanfield, AZ. He attended U of A and obtained his private pilot's license while there. He moved to Colorado and completed school at Colorado State University in Ft. Collins. While there he married his high school sweetheart and has been with her since. On completion of his Bachelor of Science degree, he went to work on the family farm in Monte Vista, CO where their twin girls were born. From there they moved to Flagstaff where they have made their residence for 44 years. His life experiences include farming, farm service business, cattle rancher, heavy equipment maintenance and operation, welding and machining, gunsmithing, security alarm technician, low and high voltage electrician, plumber, carpenter, cabinetmaker, furniture designer/maker, retail business owner, international hunting consultant, construction superintendent and project manager, building official, building plans examiner, and construction safety consultant. He is currently semi-retired continuing with construction safety training and volunteering at Pioneer Museum and Riordan Mansion State park performing maintenance and consulting on project design and development.

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY