

THE ARIZONA HERITAGE CENTER IS PROUD TO PRESENT

PAINT YOUR HERO: AN INSTRUCTIONAL WORKSHOP
LED BY ASU ART STUDENTS,
MICHAEL NOYES AND LARRY MADRIGAL

Saturday, Dec. 01 | 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Honor a HERO in your life by painting their portrait! Join us as ASU Art Students teach us how to paint portraits from photographs; the same method used by President George W. Bush when he painted the veterans featured in the Portraits of Courage exhibition.

The workshop is designed for 12 yr. olds and older. Pre-register online at www.azhs.gov/Tempe; select Programs/Events. Select Paint Your Hero Workshop and click on the registration form. After registering, please email your selected photo with subject line Portraits of Courage to: Forrest.Solis@asu.edu.

Workshop is free with admission! Space is limited, preregister today!

Admission: Free for Veterans and Active Military and accompanying family members. / General Public: $12 Adult, $10 Seniors, $8 Ages 7-17, Free 6 and under

Thank you to the ASU Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts for sponsoring the workshop!
