

ARIZONA PATHFINDERS OCTOBER BROWN BAG MEETING

“JOHN HORTON SLAUGHTER AND HIS SAN BERNARDINO RANCH”

Presented by
Historian Reba Wells Grandrud, Ph.D.

October 17, 2019 at 6:00PM

At the Arizona History Museum
949 East Second Street, Tucson AZ

Dr. Reba Grandrud will be our presenter in October, sharing her knowledge of John H. Slaughter’s San Bernardino Ranch in southeastern Cochise County.

Dr. Grandrud earned an undergraduate degree in education, and graduate degrees in Southwest History and History of the American West from the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque before moving to Arizona in 1982.

It was in 1983 while she was working as a research historian/writer for a Phoenix architectural firm that Dr. Grandrud became aware of the Slaughter San Bernardino Ranch. Although she’s worn many historically-inclined hats since then, she continues her involvement with the ranch through today. She feels honored to have been a part of the AHS Museum/Tucson volunteer team who helped produce the John and Viola Slaughter Family exhibit that opened in September 2018.

Dr. Grandrud continues to work as the John Slaughter Ranch historian and is also a San Bernardino Ranch tour guide with Ambos Tours of Nogales AZ. She volunteers and works with numerous Southwestern organizations and groups.

She is also the author of Sunnyslope (Images of America), telling the story of the desert camp turned tuberculosis refuge, eventually becoming the John C. Lincoln Hospital in Phoenix AZ.

This is a Brown Bag meeting so bring your own supper. Pathfinders’ Board will provide dessert and coffee. The meeting is free and open to the public. Donations are welcome.

Free parking is available one block west of the Museum in the Arizona Historical Society garage at the northeast corner of East Second Street and North Euclid Avenue. Use the East Second Street entrance; drive straight in, do not turn left.
