MS 1280
Common Council of the Village of Tucson Arizona
Minutes, 1871 - 1877

DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists of the typed minutes from the Common Council meetings of Tucson Arizona from 1871 to 1877. The entries have been typed from the original (not at the Historical Society). Minutes start with the election of the Mayor and Council members including Sidney R. De Long as mayor for the "Corporate Village of Tucson" along with councilmen Samuel Hughes, Chas. O. Brown, William S. Oury, and W. W. Williams. A sample of pressing concerns and issues acted upon by the Council during the year 1871 include location for the feast of San Augustine, appointment of a deputy for the Village Marshall, expenditure of funds for city support, street sanitation, and appointment of a location for a dog pound.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.
