Ellison, Glenn R., 1891-1983
Papers, 1964

DESCRIPTION

This small collection contains two handwritten letters written by Ellison to Yndia Moore at the Arizona Pioneers Historical Society in 1964. The letters describe his childhood growing up in Globe and his experiences as a cowboy. He also describes his manuscripts and his technique of writing. The letters were sent in envelopes which Ellison illustrated; one in ink and one in watercolor. Also included in the collection is a watercolor of a cowboy roping cattle.

1 Box, .1 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Glenn R. (Slim) Ellison was born in Globe in 1891. He spent very little time in school and was a rancher in Pleasant Valley most of his life. He became a “cowboy author” and published three books describing his early years and his ranching experiences in Arizona. He was also an artist, drawing and painting western ranching scenes.

ACQUISITION

Donated by Glenn R. Ellison in 1964.
