

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY BOARD MEMBER

SHERRY L. RAMPY

Maricopa County, Appointed 2021

Sherry Rampy is an Associate Broker with Brokers Realty.

Sherry holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from Temple University. As a realtor for over 25 years, she specializes in helping people buy and sell vintage and historic homes in Downtown and Central Phoenix. She has also worked as a historic consultant on two adaptive reuse projects in Downtown Phoenix, both of which won Governors Awards at the AZ Historic Preservation Conference. In 2019 she was a presenter of a session explaining the financial benefits to municipalities when they fund historic preservation projects.

Sherry has been the real estate professional on the City of Phoenix Historic Preservation Commission since 2014. She chaired the Commission in 2018 and 2019 during which time she accomplished her goal of over twelve new designations. Sherry has lived in five historic districts since moving to Phoenix in 1990. She has restored several homes including a 1912 bungalow. She has been very active in the neighborhoods in which she has lived holding leadership positions on Boards, being on several home tours and writing and implementing BlockWatch grants. Sherry is excited to continue her work promoting Arizona History through her position on the Board of the Arizona Historical Society.

"People of all backgrounds, races, religions and creeds performed acts of inclusions, kindness, care and respect in Arizona history. These acts all contributed to the building of our current society. I look forward to sharing these beautiful stories to bring us all together as Arizonans."

ARIZONA
HISTORICAL SOCIETY