- Voting on a new committee chair due to the resignation of Tom Foster at the end of his term. Tom Foster still wants to be involved with the committee as a member.

11. Director’s Update – David Breeckner

a. Legislative & Stakeholder Initiatives

- AHS participated in the Alliance of AZ Nonprofits’ Advocacy Day on Thursday, 2/23/23. David Breeckner and Rebekah Tabah met with 5 legislators, each representing a region with an AHS museum.
- March and April meetings: Ben Henderson, Director of Operations for Governor Hobbes (3/29/23), Rep. Melody Hernandez (D, District 8 – 4/10/23), and Ian O’Grady, Policy Advisor for Trade, Commerce, Arts, Tourism for Governor Hobbes (TBD).
- David Breeckner attended the Sandra Day O’Connor Institute’s annual Legacy Luncheon on Wednesday, 3/22. Notable interactions: Scottsdale Museum of the West interim director, Arizona State Museum lead curator, Kristin Atwell (film researcher), Dr. Anthea Hartig (Smithsonian director), and Ambassador Barbara Barrett.

b. Staffing

- Yanna Kruse submitted her resignation; her final day was Friday, March 17. Guest Experience has been moved under Operations and Melba Davis. The VP of Guest Experience position will be reclassified as a “museum manager” to mirror Pioneer Museum.
- Following feedback with regional partners AHS is updating its staffing plan for Pioneer Museum: museum manager (FTE), education specialist (PTE – 30 hours), interns (PTE – 30 hours). This is a budget-neutral change to the previous staffing proposal, and provides additional operations continuity with a second staff person.

c. Facilities

- Revised facility hours scheduled to go into effect no later than the first week of July. Select facilities may see updated hours sooner. AHS libraries & archives have updated hours now in effect: reservations accepted 10-12pm and 1-3pm (previously from 10-2pm); this provides staff an hour for lunch and to reset between appointments.
- Pioneer Museum: the no-later-than date to relocate Jenny Pennington to Flagstaff is the end of September. An earlier full-time reopening is likely, working off a combination of the hiring of a part-time staff member and volunteer support. NAPHS has pledged their support to serve as volunteers. A start date of this opening structure is hoped for May or June 2023.
 - Public Comment- NAPHS represented by Duffy; Shared concern for the delayed full time opening of Pioneer Museum and is happy that there is a resolution in the works. Duffy shared her feelings on the importance of having historical places open and available to the youth in the Northern Arizona community.
- Brown Theater & Steele Auditorium: due to delays with the 48 Women proposed renovation of the Browne Auditorium, AHS is reviewing deferred improvements to Steele Auditorium which were previously tied to the other’s scheduling. This will help to close out an existing 2019 SRP grant of $25,000.

d. Chapters & Support Groups

- Jenny Pennington, Kristin Rex, and David Breeckner met with NAPHS and Northern Chapter in Flagstaff on Friday, 3/24/23.
- David Breeckner with Craig McEwan, Bill Cavaliere, and Dan Aranda in Tucson on Monday, 3/20/23 to discuss concerns about AHS’ mission and focus away from territorial and broad-appeal history to focus on DEI and politically-charged topics.

e. Exhibits

- Molina Block – Yanna Kruse has connected the Yuma donor (anonymous)

with YCHS to oversee the transfer of $800,000 in donated funds to them toward the Molina Block Outdoor Agriculture Exhibit. AHS is working with YCHS to provide all requested documentation. YCHS and AHS have completed the prospectus documents to solicit design-build firms for project proposals. From YCHS, this will be sent out following the donor's transfer of funds.

12. Announcements and other matters for consideration in future board or committee meetings.

- a. Public Comment- NAPHS represented by Gwen; Tuesday April 4th is Arizona Gives Day. NAPHS has participated in the event since it started and has a "Giving Page". NAPHS is hoping for a successful fundraising event. Funds generated will go to Pioneer Museum and other local historical sites.
