International Marble Company
Papers, 1915-1924

DESCRIPTION

Collection includes correspondence, articles of incorporation, stock certificates, reports, agreements, mining deeds, stockholders' minute books and receipts for the International Marble Company (which originated as the National Marble Company). Reports include discussion of the mining conditions as well as the area surrounding the quarries. Correspondents include John Mets, Bruce Stephenson, Thomas E. Campbell and Quintus Monier, E. Lisherness and Kirt L. Hart.

1 Box, .5 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The National Marble Company incorporated in 1915 and then incorporated as the International Marble Company in 1919. The corporation had offices in Los Angeles, but the mining was done in the Golden Rule Mining District near Dragoon in Cochise County, Arizona. Incorporators were L. R. Ligier, J. H. Baker and A. J. Henderson.
