BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

The Tucson Junior Woman's Club of Tucson is one of the city's oldest service organizations. An offshoot of the Tucson Woman's Club it has existed in Tucson since 1928. In 1950 two separate clubs were formed with the new club known as the Pueblo Junior Woman's Club. The objective of the organization is to maintain an organized focus of study, recreation, training for citizenship, social development, and to equip young women for service to the community. The organization participates in various community fund-raising drives, including Community Chest, Red Cross, and Polio. Recreational activities included a yearly fashion show and Mistletoe Ball in December. The Mistletoe Ball was later discontinued and replaced with a sponsored golf tournament.
