BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: John Dinsmore (1759-1814) (var. Dinsmoor) was the father of James Dinsmore, the owner of the Dinsmore Farm. John Dinsmore was born in Windham, New Hampshire and one of eleven children. He married Susana Bell in 1787 and they had eight children. John Dinsmore was a farmer and state legislator in New Hampshire. He died in Windham, New Hampshire on April 15, 1814.

James Dinsmore (1790-1872) was born and raised in Windham, New Hampshire, he graduated from Dartmouth College in 1813, and then began to study law in 1814 in Londonderry, New Hampshire. In 1815, James Dinsmore taught literature at the Canandaigua Academy in New York. Later that year, he moved to Natchez, Mississippi where he went into practice with a Judge Turner. Shortly thereafter he began planting sugar in Mississippi and at Bayou Black in Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana. In 1838, James Dinsmore purchased 800 acres in Boone County, Kentucky where he built the main house in 1841-1842 and farmed tobacco, grapes, and grain and produced timber. James Dinsmore co-owned Gaines Farm in Salinas County, Missouri. James married Martha Keturah Macomb (1797-1859) on May 13, 1829 and they had three daughters:

Isabella Ramsay Dinsmore Flandrau (1830-1867), Julia Stockton Dinsmore (1833-1926) and Susan Bell Dinsmore (1835-1851). John Dinsmore was the great-great-grandfather of Martha Ferguson Breasted (1906-1994) and John Selmes Greenway (1924-1995).

Julia Stockton Dinsmore (1833-1926) was the great aunt of Isabella Greenway and was born in Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana. She was the daughter of James Dinsmore and Martha Macomb Dinsmore. After her sister, Isabella Dinsmore Flandrau died in 1867, Julia assumed responsibility for raising Isabella's daughters Martha "Patty" and Sarah "Sally." She inherited the farm when James Dinsmore died in 1872. Julia began writing poetry in her fifties and many of her poems appeared in the New Orleans Times Democrat and a volume, entitled Verses and Sonnets, was published in 1910 by Doubleday. Julia Dinsmore never married and her niece Sally Flandrau Cutcheon (1866-1947) inherited the Dinsmore Farm.

Sally Flandrau Cutcheon (1866-1947) was the daughter of Minnesota Judge Charles Eugene Flandrau (1828-1903) and aunt of Isabella Selmes Greenway (1886-1953). In 1891 Sally married her father's law partner, Franklin Warner M. Cutcheon. Sally and Franklin had no children and she inherited the Dinsmore Farm from her aunt, Julia Stockton Dinsmore, in 1926. On her death in 1947, Sally left the Dinsmore Farm to her niece, Isabella Selmes Greenway King.

Isabella Selmes Munro Ferguson Greenway King (1886-1953) was an Arizona Congresswoman born in Boone County, Kentucky to Martha "Patty" Flandrau Selmes (1861-1923) and Tilden Selmes (1853-1895). Isabella moved to New York City in 1901 where she attended Spence School and Miss Chapin's School and was a bridesmaid at the wedding of her school friend Eleanor to Franklin Delano Roosevelt on March 17, 1905. In 1905, Isabella married Robert Munro Ferguson (1868-1922), a native of Scotland and a former Rough Rider. They had two children Martha Ferguson Breasted (1906-1994) and Robert Munro Ferguson (1908-1984). After her husband developed tuberculosis in 1908 they moved across the country for his health first to Saranac Lake, New York (1908-1910), then to Silver City, New Mexico (1910-1913), and finally to a homestead in Tyrone, New Mexico (1914-1922). In 1918, Isabella was appointed chairman of the Women's Land Army of New Mexico and served on the Grant County (New Mexico) Board of Education. In 1923 Isabella married General John Campbell Greenway, vice-president of the Calumet & Arizona Mining Company, in Santa Barbara, their son John Selmes Greenway (1924-1995) was born in 1924. In 1925 they moved to Ajo, Arizona and Greenway retired from C & A Mining Co. He died in 1926 following surgical complications. In 1927 Isabella moved to Tucson, Arizona purchased Quarter Circle Double X Ranch, which remained in the family until sold in 1977. In Tucson, Isabella established both the Arizona Hut and the Arizona Inn. Her political career began in 1928 when she was elected Democratic National Committeewoman for Arizona and re-elected in 1934. In 1939, Isabella married Harry Orland King (1890-1976) the president of the Institution of Applied Econometrics and deputy National Recovery Act administrator. During World War II, Isabella was the national chairwoman of the American Women's Voluntary Service and the American Arbitration Association, and while a personal friend of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, she opposed efforts to re-elect him for a third term. In 1947 Isabella inherited the Dinsmore Farm from her aunt, Sally Flandrau Cutcheon. After her death in 1953, Isabella left the Dinsmore Farm to her three children.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: The collection includes correspondence, financial records, legal documents, writings and printed materials relating to the Dinsmore family and its descendants documenting plantation life, farm operations, family life and current events. Most correspondence is between family members. Topics include slavery prior to the Civil War, the War of 1812, Daniel Webster, Indian treaties, cholera outbreaks, Texas, pioneer life in Minnesota, Theodore Roosevelt's Dakota ranching and early political career, the Mexican Revolution, World War I and Isabella's participation in the Women's Land Army. Correspondents include members of the Flandrau, Bell, Greenway, Munro Ferguson, and Selmes families, Theodore Roosevelt, Eleanor Roosevelt, and John C. Greenway. There are diaries and journals present from James Dinsmore, Julia, Isabella Munro Ferguson, and Charles Flandrau. The financial records concern operations of Bayou Black Plantation in Louisiana and Dinsmore Farm in Kentucky, including crop production, slave records, and household accounts. The legal documents include deeds, court records, slave bills of sale, wills and other documents. Writings and poetry of family members are also present. The John Bell estate includes records for road construction in Terrebonne Parish, slave cost estimates and Natchez, Miss. death minutes tallying causes of death (1819-1822), and Dr. Bell's patient medical fee journal, 1823-1930.

There are instances in which original order is not observed due to the discovery of materials in 2008 which were incorporated into the collection as deemed appropriate.
