

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY BOARD MEMBER

DENISE BAUER, Vice-President

Cochise County, Appointed 2020

DeNise Bauer arrived in Arizona in 2012 after a 35-year career with federal land agencies. Originally from Jamaica, Queens, New York, she graduated from Stuyvesant High School, then received her Bachelors in Forestry from Virginia Tech. She worked in both staff and management positions for two agencies across the U.S. She also earned her Masters in Public Administration from Marist College, focusing on organizational leadership and development in non-profit organizations.

After retiring, she and her husband moved to Douglas to enjoy the ranching lifestyle. Since she had always been active in community organizations, DeNise volunteered to work with the Douglas Historical Society, based at Douglas-Williams House Museum. She recently completed her second term as Board President.
